

gentleman is the officer, I mean, a lover.

It is whispered that the Prince of Wales likes going to do breakfast. What are your Angliamancas going to do about it?

A writer on etiquette says that no man is a gentleman who puts his coat-tails when he sits down, "because a gentleman is above caring whether his coat-tails are wrinkled or not," and that a man who gets full of himself, sits under the table and goes to sleep on the floor, not caring a cent whether his coat-tails are wrinkled or not, must also be a scoundrel, according to the foregoing code of etiquette.—(Norristown Herald).

DRAMATIC NOTES.

Mr. Wallack's company has been received, with great favor at the Park Theatre, in Brooklyn.

Mr. Hornum, the magician, gives a most interesting entertainment at the Grand Opera House, where he has been greeted by a crowd of admirers.

Mr. Poole has effected a revival of the old play of "Oliver Twist," at his theatre, with Mr. Mack as Fagin, Mr. H. J. Brown as Ned, and Miss Paula Barlow as Nancy.

Mr. D. H. Harkins will appear at Poole's Theatre, next Monday evening, May 16, as Richard III.
Mr. Joseph Murphy will appear next week at the Grand Opera House.
Mr. Palmer's season at the Madison Square Theatre will close on May 28. Mr. Richard Mansfield, who has leased the theatre for the summer, will begin his season on May 30.
Mr. James O'Neill, acting in Monte Cristo, was welcomed

Miss Rose Coghlan will appear at the Theatre Comique in Harlem next Monday night, May 16, and will remain there for a week. The numerous admirers of this winning and accomplished actress will have an opportunity of seeing her in a round of comedy characters.

The death-list includes the name of Mr. John A. Her and, the old poet and dramatist. He expired in the Charter house, London, age eighty-eight.

WHAT HE THINKS OF REPUBLICAN PROSPECTS IN

I do not think that Mr. Blaine is able to carry New-York. I said to him some time before the last Na-the natural democratic strength, I feel that your chances of success are small.' I think that Mr. [unclear] was not so deeply interested in his candidacy

"The partiality of Mr. Cleveland has kept warm the nest egg, and with an almost unbroken front the allies. Allied to the Mugwumps, but not identical with them, are the disaffected Republicans, who are fact was demonstrated in 1884. But it was also demonstrated that this accretion of votes was infriends by a positive refusal to allow the use of his name. Mr. Blaine was assured the last time by his friends that he could be elected without New-York.

lean successes were attained in Congressional districts in Virginia last year go for nothing in a State election. New-York must be depended on to win the

The members of the New-York Southern Society turned out in good numbers last night at Delmonico's.

C. Murray introduced the resolutions which provide that the ceremonies shall take place on February 22, proper celebration of the organization of constitutional government in this city, as well as the inauguration of Washington as the first President of the marks were made about Washington. Then Dr. William A. Hammond told the society that it was prosperous enough to go to housekeeping, and the idea

ROSE COGHLIN AVERTS A PANIC.

Miss Coghlan seized another rug and threw it over the flames to smother them, but the second rug also took a tune as she confronted the audience with loaded arms. The people reassured sat down, and when the curtain rose again Miss Coghlan was greeted with a

TWO "CALM, JUDICIAL" VIEWS.

The local option provision was never in the bill, and the excuse for not putting it in being "inexpediency," but the real excuse was that it might strengthen the bill and lead to a stronger law, a consummation which the Board of Health had in mind.

From The Evening Post, Wednesday, May 11.
They are bending all energies to pass the Vedder

PITY WE CANNOT RECIPROCATE.
From The Providence Journal.
 The Canadian admission that "the United States Gov-

It [THE TRIBUNE Almanac] is one of the very best

Those who went out of the Republican party when Mr. Blaine was nominated went never to return. They went out and never returned to the Republican party when Republican party were very loose indeed. They clung to it through habit and because of traditional prejudice against the Democratic party. But now that they have